Norcross Bros. Co. of Milford, Mass., Sends Out Letter.

Placing all the bame for the present tagnant condition of affairs at the four monster quarry plants of the Milford pink granite quarries at the door of the Franklin Trust company, the mortgages, and virtually accusing the officials of that company of conspiring to bring about the present outlook in order that the plants can afterwards be bought for ess than the mortgages thereon, the Norcross Bros. Co. has sent out a letter in which an interesting history of the troubles of the consolidated company is included, according to the Milford Daily

The history is interesting because it gives the position of the Norcross inerests, which are seeking to have the smaller creditors fight what looks like a freeze-out of the little men at trenendous cost to the fown of Milford, turough continued idleness of the plant. The statement that neither the receiver, the new or old company, can go into the market to look for work under present conditions, is a surprise because it was thought that when the plants had Bakersfield.
